

EUUSA New Release
Panel Discussion on EU vs. U.S. approaches to International Trade
October 21, 2005, Deloitte Consulting, New York

On October 21, 2005, EUUSA in cooperation with Euronet BRG organized a discussion on the European Union and United States approach to International Trade and Policy issues.

Left Photo: The Panel (from left to right): Peter Spenser, Ditte Juul-Joergensen, Brian Weadick

Peter Spenser, a Partner in Deloitte Consulting LLP's Technology Integration Practice introduced the key speaker, Mrs. Ditte Juul-Joergensen, Economic and Financial Affairs Advisor for the European Commission Delegation in New York. She presented the different approaches to international trade taken in the United States and various countries in the European Union and provided multiple perspectives on each.

Following the discussion, the participants attended a networking/social event at Lederhosen in the West Village where everyone ate German food in celebration of Oktoberfest. More than 70 guests of which Deloitte employees and MBA students, from NYU and Columbia University, attended the event that was hosted at Deloitte's offices in New York.

About the EUUSA

The European Union Association in the US Inc (EUUSA) is a US Non-Profit Corporation that aims at promoting the image of the European Union in the United States and at the United Nations in the fields of culture, business, international relations as well as common foreign security policy (CFSP). The EUUSA also fosters European Union - United States relationships.